FRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 4.

Pope Leo's Anniversary.

Yesterday was the tenth anniversary of the coronation of the Pope, and the occasion was grandly celebrated at St. Peter's, Rome. The Pope celebrated mass in the Sistine Chapel, it being the only day in the year when he appears with tiara and is borne on the sedia gestatoria. The garb of Lent was thrown aside for the time being, and the grand altars were decorated in magnificent style. The hour of the grand pontifical mass was set for 11:30, but long before that time the chapel was crowded. The Swiss Guards appeared in their handsome uniforms, and the ambassadors and church dignitaries occupied the front pews. The scene when the procession entered the great sanctuary was magnificent. Preceded by censer and cross-bearers, came the long line of prelates. Every eye in the vast audience gazed expectantly towards the sacrality as the procession passed through into the sanctuary. Towards the last of the brilliant retinue appeared the white-robed figure of the Pope, borne on the sedia. As he entered the sanctuary the Pope bowed his head, and slowly raising his hand, made the sign of the cross. This moment afforded an excellent opportunity to study the man who now is the head of the Catholic church. The great white robe he wore completely enveloped the frame. When he descended from the sedia and walked toward the altar, his feebleness became apparent. His strength is sustained by his will power. His mind is strong, but his body is weak and tottering with the infirmities of age. The Pontiff intoned the Gloria in a voice of firmness. His movements in celebrating the mass were slow and majestic. The music was of a high order. The Pope pronounced the benediction on the kneeling throng of prelates, priests, ambassadors and laymen. Cardinals Gibbons and Tascheren were not present but their secretaries were. Rev. W. A. Farron, of Richmond, Va., and Louis Garthe, of Baltimore, were the only Americans present, besides the secretary of Cardinal Gibbons. Bishop Keane has gone to the seashore for his health.

"Hello!" we heard one man say to another, the other day. "I didn't know you at first; why, you look ten years younger than you did when I saw you last." "I feel ten years younger," was the reply. "You know I used to be under the weather all the time and gave up expecting to be any better. The doctor said I had consumption. I was terribly weak, had night sweats, cough, no appetite, and lost flesh. I saw Dr. Pierce's 'Golden Medical Discovery' advertised, and thought it would do no harm if it did no good. It has cured me. I am a new man because I am a well one."
